DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

- Group I, claim(s) 1 and 3-12, drawn to a method for filtering liquid.
- Group II, claim(s) 2 and 13-20, drawn to a liquid filtration system.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

All of the groups share the same special technical feature of a regenerative rotary pump and filter system wherein the pump is powered by a filtered liquid run motor, However, this feature does not offer contribution over the prior art. Keefer (USP 4,973,408) discloses an apparatus and process for reverse osmosis with a free rotor booster pump to increase pressure wherein the booster pump is powered by the expansion of the concentrate fluid (Abstract), see also apparatus in figure 1.

3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- Species A-1 drawn to a positive mechanical coupling
- Species A-2 drawn to a non-positive mechanical coupling

Applicant is pointed to P7/L30-P8/L2 which discloses the two types of couplings as distinct possible embodiments

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

All of the species share the same special technical feature of a regenerative rotary pump and filter system wherein the pump is powered by a filtered liquid run motor. However, this feature does not offer contribution over the prior art. Keefer (USP 4,973,408) discloses an apparatus and process for reverse osmosis with a free rotor booster pump to increase pressure wherein the booster pump is powered by the expansion of the concentrate fluid (Abstract), see also apparatus in figure 1.

5. A telephone call was made to E. Russell Tarleton on 5/18/2009 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
